Pope's Message

Seeds of Peace and Hope

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

“Comfort, O comfort my people” (Is 40:1). This is the appeal voiced by the prophet Isaiah, which continues to resound today, calling us to share God’s consolation with so many brothers and sisters who are experiencing situations of frailty, sadness and pain. For those who are weeping, in despair, in sickness and in mourning, the prophetic announcement of the Lord’s desire to put an end to suffering and turn it into joy resounds loud and clear. In this regard, I would like to thank once again the two individuals who shared their testimonies. We can transform all of our suffering through the grace of Jesus Christ. Thank you! This compassionate Word, made flesh in Christ, is the Good Samaritan spoken of in the Gospel: it is he who soothes our wounds; it is he who takes care of us. In times of darkness, even when all outward appearances suggest otherwise, God does not abandon us. Rather, it is precisely in these moments that we are invited more than ever to place our hope in the closeness of the Savior who never forsakes us.

We seek for someone to console us, and often find no one. At times, we even experience difficulty listening to the voices of those who sincerely wish to share our pain. This happens. There are situations in which words are not helpful and become almost meaningless. In such moments, perhaps only tears remain, but sometimes even these may have run dry. Pope Francis once called to mind the tears of Mary Magdalene, confused and alone before Jesus’ empty tomb. “She simply weeps,” he said. “You see, there are times in our lives when tears are the glasses through which we see Jesus. There is a moment in our lives when only tears prepare us to see Jesus. And what is this woman’s message? ‘I have seen the Lord.’” [1]

Dear sisters and brothers, tears are a language that express the deep feelings of a wounded heart. Tears are a silent cry for compassion and comfort. Moreover, they cleanse and purify our eyes, our feelings, and our thoughts. We should not be ashamed to cry; it is a way of expressing our sadness and our desire for a new world. Crying tells of our humanity, which is weak and tested, but destined for joy.

Where there is pain, the question inevitably arises: why is there so much evil? Where does it come from? Why did it have to happen to me? In his Confessions, Saint Augustine writes: "I searched for the origin of evil... What is its root, and what its seed?... Where then does it come from since the good God made everything good?... Such questions revolved in my unhappy breast... But there was a firm and stable place in my heart for the faith, within the Catholic Church, in your Christ our Lord and Savior, a faith I did not intend to abandon, even though in many respects this faith was still unformed and hesitant" (VII, 5).

Sacred Scripture guides us on the journey from questioning to faith. There are, of course, questions that turn us in on ourselves, divide us internally and separate us from reality. There are thoughts that are not productive. If they isolate us and lead us to despair, they also demean our intelligence. It would be better, as in the Psalms, to turn our questions into pleas, lamentations and supplications for the justice and peace promised us by God. In this way, we build a bridge towards heaven, even when it seems we get no response. In the Church, we seek the open sky, which is Jesus, the bridge between God and man. Consolation is found when faith stands "firm and stable" where it was once "unformed and hesitant" like a boat in a storm.

Where there is evil, we must seek the comfort and consolation that can overcome it and give it no respite. In the Church, this means never being alone. Resting your head on a comforting shoulder, finding someone who cries with you and gives you strength is a medicine that we cannot do without, because it is a sign of love. Where pain is deep, the hope that comes from communion must be even stronger. And this hope does not disappoint.

The testimonies we have heard speak of a truth: that pain must not give rise to violence, and that violence never has the final say, for it is conquered by a love that knows how to forgive. What greater freedom can we hope to achieve than that which comes from forgiveness? By grace, forgiveness has the power to open hearts, regardless of what they have been through. The violence suffered cannot be erased, but forgiveness granted to those who offend us is a foretaste of the Kingdom of God on earth. It is the fruit of God's work that puts an end to evil and establishes justice. Redemption is mercy, and it can bring us a better future, even while we await the Lord's return. He alone will wipe away every tear and open to us the book of history, allowing us to read the pages that today escape our understanding (cf. Rev 5).

Also to you, brothers and sisters, who have suffered injustice and violence, Mary repeats her message: "I am your mother." And the Lord says to you in the depth of your hearts: "You are my son; you are my daughter." No one can take away this personal gift offered to each of you. The Church, some of whose members have unfortunately hurt you, kneels with you today before our Mother. May we all learn from her to protect the most vulnerable with tenderness! May we learn to listen to your wounds and walk together. May we receive from Our Lady of Sorrows the strength to recognize that life is not defined only by the evil we suffer, but by the love of God, who never abandons us and guides the whole Church.

Further more, Saint Paul's words suggest that when we receive consolation from God, we then become capable of offering consolation to others. He "consoles us in all our affliction," writes the Apostle, "so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God" (2 Cor 1:4). God knows the secrets of our hearts; we must not prevent him from comforting us by thinking that we can rely solely on our own strength.

Sisters and brothers, at the end of this vigil, you will receive a small gift: the Agnus Dei. It is a sign that we can take home with us as a reminder of the victory of good over evil: the mystery of Jesus, of his death and resurrection. He is the Lamb who gives us the Holy Spirit, the Comforter who will never leave us. He comforts us in times of need and strengthens us with his grace (cf. Acts 15:31).

Our loved ones who have been separated from us by sister death are not lost and do not fade into the void. Their lives belong to the Lord, the Good Shepherd, who embraces them and holds them close. He will return them to us one day so that, together, we may enjoy eternal happiness.

Dear friends, just as there is personal pain, so too there is the collective pain in our own day. Entire populations are crushed by the weight of violence, hunger and war, and they cry out for peace. This immense cry challenges us to pray, take action to end all violence, and bring peace to those who suffer. Above all, it pleads with God, whose heart trembles with compassion, to bring his Kingdom. The true consolation we must offer to those around us is showing that peace is possible, and that it grows within each of us, if we do not stifle it. May the leaders of nations pay particular attention to the cries of so many innocent children and ensure them a future that protects and consoles them.

Even in the midst of so much arrogance, we are certain that God will inspire hearts and hands to provide help and consolation: peacemakers who can comfort those who are in pain and sadness. Together, as Jesus taught us, we will proclaim with greater conviction: "Thy Kingdom come

Bishop's Message

Dear Rev. Fathers, Religious and People of God,

The month of October is dedicated to Our Lady of Rosary. At this month, our diocese celebrates the feast of Our Lady of Rosary at the parish of Karumanthapatty on 5th of this month. The shrine of Karumanthanpatty is the Basilica of our diocese and as such it is the diocesan pilgrim centre. Through her intercession, the devotees have been receiving numerous miracles. Kindly instruct your parishioners to participate in the celebrations of the feast of Our Lady of Rosary.

A good catholic who does not know and pray the rosary is hard to imagine. It is a very popular and easy form of prayer in which we contemplate the life of Christ as well as the mysteries of our redemption. It is the simple and the rich form of prayer. In all apparitions, Mother Mary has repeatedly and warmly recommended the praying of rosary. In order to lead a happy family life filled with peace and blessings of God, you may exhort your catholic to recite rosary daily at home. A family which recites rosary lives together.

The Rosary is a biblical prayer as it recalls the events narrated in the Gospel. It is a Christological prayer as it dwells upon the nativity, manifestation, suffering, death, resurrection and glorification of Christ. The rosary is also very much a Trinitarian prayer. Besides repeating the Lord's prayer and the glory be, it recalls the annunciation that brought the Heavenly Father's message to Mary, the coming of the Holy Spirit upon her and her becoming mother of Jesus who became man.

The Rosary is not only a simple form of prayer but also very efficacious prayer. Numerous persons have testified to having benefitted by praying rosary. One obtains interior peace, another finds unity in the family, another is healed of an illness, another finds employment, another finds a home and so on. So let us renew our practice of reciting rosary at home daily. God will surely bless those who devoutly pray the mysteries of salvation.

In this month, the Church celebrates the Mission Sunday. The Vatican documents say that the Church, by its very nature, missionary and we, who are her members, are missionaries. The works of missions are not optional but mandatory and commanded by Jesus Himself. While celebrating the Mission Sunday, we have a duty to contribute generously for this noble cause. The collections as well as the donations given by people are sent to different parts of the world for missionary activities. The poor churches are helped across the globe. The Mission Sunday is an opportunity to show our love, concern and solidarity with our less fortunate brethren who share our faith through the Sacrament of Baptism. I am happy to say and thankful that over the years, we have contributed a lot to this cause. Please animate our catholics to contribute to the mission generously.

Thanking you and with God's blessings,

Yours devotedly in Christ

75 Years of Grace: Honouring St. Bartholomea and St. Vincenza

The Province of South East India gathered with hearts full of gratitude to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the sainthood of St. Bartolomea Capitanio and St. Vincenza Gerosa. It was a day that beautifully combined prayer, thanksgiving, and joyful festivity, honouring our beloved saints who continue to inspire us as a beacon of holiness and charity.

The celebration opened with a solemn hour of adoration, highlighted by the symbol of the boat. The boat, deeply rooted in the Gospel, is a sign of life's journey with Christ—sometimes through calm waters, sometimes amidst storms, yet always guided by faith and trust in God. Just as Jesus called His disciples from the boat and calmed the storm on the sea, our saints, Bartolomea and Vincenza, journeyed courageously in the “boat of life,” carrying forward the mission of love and charity. This symbol reminded all present of the call to sail together in the charism entrusted to us.

The highlight of the celebration was the Holy Eucharistic celebration, beginning with the procession of 75 glowing lamps—a powerful sign of 75 years of grace since the canonization of our saints. Each lamp shone as a reminder of God's abundant blessings and the enduring light of their holy witness. Following the sacred moments, the day unfolded with colourful cultural programs and joyful competitions that filled the atmosphere with life and enthusiasm. Themed “St. Bartolomea and St. Vincenza: Hope of Today,” the programs included:

- A quiz competition to deepen knowledge of the saints' lives and mission
- Drawing, singing, and fashion show competitions showcasing talent and creativity
- An exhibition on the Blessed House of Charity, reflecting the saints' spirit of service

The whole day was one of joy and celebration. Smiles and laughter filled the air as everyone participated with zeal. The prizes were distributed to the winners, adding delight and encouragement. Beyond the Province-level gathering, the celebration extended into each community, where the 75 years of sainthood were commemorated with devotion and festive spirit, ensuring that every heart shared in the thanksgiving. Indeed, the 75th year of sainthood was not merely a commemoration but a living testimony of gratitude, joy, and renewed commitment to sail in the same boat of faith, hope, and charity

In the boat of faith we sail, Guided by Christ, through calm and gale.

Our saints still whisper, “Trust, obey, God's love will light your every way.”

News from CEEMA

Dear Rev. Fathers & Sisters,

Greetings from CEEMA!

We are happy to report our activities for the month of September 2025.

Mother Mary Birth Day Celebration

The Feast of Our Lady was joyfully celebrated on September 9, 2025, in a meaningful and devotional manner. Pongal was specially prepared by the staff as part of the celebration. The blessing of the Pongal and prayers were offered by Rev. Fr. Rayappan from Erode Town Parish, Ass. Rev. Fr. Infant, and Rev. Fr. Rosario Vinoth.

The event was graced by the presence of CEEMA staff, residents of the old-age home, Fr. Pancras Joseph, and the Rev. Sisters from the Little Sisters of the Poor, making it a truly prayerful and community-centered celebration.

Child Sponsorship Program (CSP)

We have received letters of support from 23 new children enrolled in the CPSP program and have forwarded them to the donor organization, requesting assistance on behalf of all these children.

Free Training Course on Aari Work

CEEMA is conducting a free three-month training course on Aari Work in the Aravakurichi area of Karur district. A total of 15 women are actively participating and learning the skill with dedication. This training has been specifically designed for Dalit minority women in the region, providing them with an opportunity to acquire valuable skills. Upon completion, the training will empower them to take up income-generating activities, thereby supporting their livelihood and improving their future prospects.

Monthly RPT Meeting

The monthly staff meeting was held at CEEMA on September 9, 2025. During the meeting, the team reviewed the progress made in the previous month and discussed plans and strategies for moving forward in the coming months.

Government Meeting

A meeting of the Erode District-level Child Labour Prevention Commission was held on September 1, 2025, at 3:00 p.m. The discussion focused on legal measures concerning the prohibition and regulation of child and adolescent labour. The meeting was attended by the District Superintendent of Police, the Child Protection Officer, the District Social Welfare Officer, and the Health Officer. The Program Coordinator represented CEEMA at the meeting.

"Let us learn to live with kindness, to love everyone, even when they do not love us."

News from CMSSS

Dear Fathers and Sisters,

Report on NGO Management Workshop

Date: September 11, 2025

Venue: CMSSS

Attendees: First-Year MSW Students

A one-day intervention program was conducted for first-year MSW students Bishop Appasamy College of Social Work. The session, led by Fr. Tellis Roch, provided a comprehensive overview of NGO operational frameworks. Key discussions included organizational structure, the critical role of partnering organizations, and strategies for ensuring financial sustainability.

Fr. Roch introduced essential documentation skills, detailing the purpose and format of a concept note and a project proposal. The interactive workshop concluded with an extensive question-and-answer session, significantly enhancing the students' conceptual understanding and practical knowledge of the development sector. The program was highly insightful.

WASH TRAINING AT MARIAPURAM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

A half-hour WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene) training program was successfully conducted for the elementary school children at Mariapuram. The session, led by our Field Coordinator, effectively combined an engaging live demonstration on proper handwashing techniques with clear picture-based explanations of key hygiene practices.

Special thanks to Br. James for his invaluable support in organizing and facilitating this initiative. The interactive approach ensured the training was highly informative and engaging for the students. This knowledge is crucial and will be immensely useful for the children to adopt and follow in their daily lives, promoting better health and well-being within the community.

Family Development Program (FDP)

A comprehensive survey for the Family Development Program (FDP) was recently completed across multiple clusters in Porulur and Coimbatore. Over a month, our field team visited 250 families to assess their eligibility and needs. The Coordinator conducted intensive outreach, meeting with eighty families individually within their villages to verify their socio-economic status and discuss potential small-scale business opportunities at the local level.

As part of our rigorous validation process, previously unregistered families and those who have economically graduated were formally removed from the program roster. This meticulous exercise ensured that support is accurately targeted toward truly deserving beneficiaries. A detailed report documenting the findings and the final list of registered families has been successfully compiled and submitted to the project donor for further review and action.

FINANCIAL LITERACY PROGRAM

A highly informative financial literacy program was successfully conducted at CMSSS on [19-09-25]. The session, led by resource person Mr. Vivekanandhan, spanned two and a half hours and saw enthusiastic participation from 35 individuals.

Mr. Vivekanandhan delivered an eye-opening session, demystifying core concepts of money management. The discourse covered the benefits of prudent financial planning, various government schemes and loans, and diverse investment avenues for wealth generation. Practical strategies for effective savings were also highlighted.

The program concluded with an interactive Q&A segment where participants had their specific doubts clarified. Each attendee received an informative booklet for future reference. As a token of participation, certificates will be issued to all attendees after one month. The event was greatly appreciated for its practical and empowering insights.

BMZ- PROJECTS (2nd Phase)

Skill Training and Livelihood Diversification Workshop for Traditional Communities

On 03, September, 2025, we have conducted a workshop based on the topic 'Building sustainable livelihood'. Entrepreneurship development training were organized to equip participants with alternative livelihood skills, aimed at promoting sustainable income generation opportunities. This training focused on enhancing the entrepreneurial mindset and practical skills needed to start and manage small businesses. To ensure quality guidance and hands-on learning, a product development trainer was engaged as the Resource Person. The trainer provided expert knowledge on product design, value addition, packaging, and market trends, enabling participants to create market-ready products. This initiative played a crucial role in diversifying livelihoods and reducing dependency on environmentally degrading practices.

The trainer adopted a participatory and hands-on approach to ensure maximum engagement and practical learning. Sessions began with interactive lectures and group discussions to introduce key concepts of entrepreneurship and alternative livelihood opportunities. Resource Person guided the participants through the process of idealization, design, and development of market-ready products based on local resources and demand. Practical demonstrations, case studies, and role-plays will be incorporated to build real-world skills.

Many participants appreciated the hands-on sessions led by the Product Development Trainer, stating that it helped them better understand how to create products that meet market demands.

Environmental Awareness and Community Resource Management Training

On 05 September, 2025. Members actively participated in the “Training on Ecological Awareness and Sustainable Community Resource Use”. We as a team distributed posters as well as Pamphlets in Achipatti, Gandhi Nagar, Pollachi, New bus stand and old bus stand .Sensitizing the community on ecological issues and facilitating their active participation in the community management of natural resources is vital for sustainable environmental stewardship. By raising awareness about pressing ecological challenges such as "Say No To Plastic". Facilitating this process involves forming or strengthening local resource management committees, promoting traditional knowledge alongside modern conservation practices, and ensuring inclusive participation-particularly of women and youth.

The methodology for sensitizing the community on ecological issues and creating awareness about ecological degradation involves a multi-pronged, grassroots-level outreach approach using posters, public rallies, and vehicle campaigns. Informative and visually engaging posters will be designed in local languages and strategically placed in high-traffic public.

The community sensitization activities on ecological issues through posters, public rallies, and vehicle campaigns were impact and well-received. These methods successfully captured public attention and helped spread awareness about ecological degradation in an accessible and engaging manner. The visual appeal of posters and the interactive nature of rallies and vehicle announcements encouraged active community participation.

Capacity building workshop on Networking and Advocacy for ecological justice

On 8th September, 2025 A total of 30 members actively participated in the 'Capacity building workshop on networking and advocacy for ecological justice'. SHG leaders were provided with training focused on strengthening their skills in networking, advocacy, and lobbying to effectively address ecological and livelihood-related challenges. The training aimed to equip them with the knowledge and confidence needed to engage with relevant agencies and authorities, enabling them to raise community concerns, influence policy decisions, and seek support for sustainable solutions. By enhancing their ability to build strategic alliances and communicate effectively, the initiative empowers SHG leaders to become strong representatives of their communities in environmental and development matters.

The methodology adopted for this initiative involved a participatory and practical approach to ensure effective learning and skill development among SHG leaders. Interactive training sessions were conducted using group discussions, role plays, and real-life case studies to enhance understanding of networking, advocacy, and lobbying techniques.

The training for SHG leaders was highly effective and well-received. It successfully strengthened their abilities in advocacy, networking, and engaging with authorities on ecological and livelihood concerns. The interactive approach made the sessions practical and easy to grasp. Participants showed increased confidence and a clearer understanding of their roles in community development.

DLKF Meeting

On 19 July 2025 (Saturday), from 2:00 pm to 3:00 pm, the District Level Kolping Federation met with ten members present. Under the guidance of Fr. Tellis Roch and the district leadership, the group focused heavily on preparations for a major event scheduled for 25 October 2025, with concrete responsibilities assigned to ensure every aspect is well managed.

Stella was entrusted with overseeing subscription collections, while Mariya and Jerold were jointly given charge of stall arrangements. Bindhu will handle food (lunch), Elizabeth Rani will welcome the gathering, and the Cathedral team will manage registration and the distribution of tea and snacks. To support financial needs for the event, it was agreed that every person contributes ₹ 200 as a donation. The program's agenda and order of service were finalized; notably, the Rathinapuri (St. Peter) group will lead and conduct the Mass. In addition, the Kolping Fair is set for 2 October 2025 at Karumathampathy.

As part of early preparation, two members have been assigned to collect the names of participating groups and a headcount to aid coordination. Each group has also been asked to contribute essential supplies such as rice, dhal, nightwear etc., which may be distributed to those in need.

Beyond the logistics and roles, the meeting included a SWOT analysis—identifying strengths like strong leadership and group commitment; weaknesses such as limited financial resources or potential coordination gaps; opportunities in increased visibility, community engagement, fundraising; and threats like unforeseen costs, weather disruptions, or members not fulfilling assigned tasks. The aim is that by confronting these internal and external factors, the Federation will improve its effectiveness and sustainability in carrying out its upcoming events and outreach.

GENERAL BODY MEETING OF UDHAYAM WOMEN FEDERATION TRUST

A General Body Meeting of the Udhayam Women Federation Trust was convened at CMSSS, lasting for two hours. The meeting was attended by 12 members.

The primary agenda involved a comprehensive review and evaluation of the previous year's activities. Region-wise reports were presented and scrutinized, providing a detailed overview of the trust's reach and impact. A significant SWOT analysis was conducted to assess the strengths and opportunities of local Self-Help Groups, informing future strategies.

The annual report was formally submitted and accepted by the body. Furthermore, it was confirmed that the trust's official renewal with the Registrar Office had been successfully completed. The meeting culminated in productive discussions on new schemes and actionable plans, which were finalized for implementation in the forthcoming year.

EDUCATE A CHILD

Every child deserves the chance to learn, grow, and build a bright future. Yet, for many children from tribal and marginalized communities, this fundamental right remains a distant dream. You can help turn that dream into a reality.

The Coimbatore Multipurpose Social Service Society (CMSSS) invites you to join our mission by sponsoring the education of a deserving child. Your monthly contribution provides them with essential educational materials, school fees, uniforms, and the unwavering support they need to succeed.

Your Sponsorship Makes a Direct Impact:

Classes 1 to 5: ₹1,200 per month

Classes 6 to 9: ₹1,700 per month

Classes 10 to 12: ₹2,200 per month

College (UG Courses): ₹2,500 per month

College (PG Courses): ₹3,000 per month

We understand that every donor has unique preferences. Alongside our monthly program, we also offer the flexibility of Six-Month and Yearly Sponsorship options.

You are not just a donor; you are a lifeline. You are the hope that empowers a child to write a new story for themselves and their community.

COIMBATORE DIOCESE HEALTH COMMISSION MENTAL HEALTH SEMINAR AT CHINNA DHARAPURAM PARISH

A highly impactful one-hour mental health seminar was successfully conducted at Chinna Dharapuram Parish, with approximately 100 parishioners in attendance. The session, expertly led by Fr. Tellis Roch, focused on crucial family dynamics, including parenting challenges, parent-child tensions, and understanding youth in the modern context.

The seminar was enhanced with a PowerPoint presentation for clarity. Informative pamphlets on alcoholism and its detrimental effects were distributed to the community. An engaging question-and-answer segment concluded the program, allowing for valuable interaction.

Sincere gratitude is extended to Fr. Victor Antonyraj for his initiative and unwavering support in organizing this vital program. Our thanks also go to the dedicated sisters and church volunteers whose efforts were instrumental in ensuring the seminar's success.

WASH AWARENESS PROGRAM BY DIOCESE HEALTH ASSOCIATION

A WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene) awareness program was conducted by the Diocese Health Association at St. Joseph's School, Podanur and St. Agnes School, Kottaimedu. The sessions, tailored for high school and middle school students, were held for thirty minutes at each institution.

Our Field Coordinator led the engaging program, which combined a live demonstration of correct handwashing techniques with illustrative picture demonstrations to explain broader sanitation practices. The interactive format was highly effective in capturing the students' interest.

We extend our sincere gratitude to the principals, teachers, and coordinators of both schools for their invaluable support in organizing this initiative. This knowledge is essential and will empower students to integrate these crucial healthy habits into their daily routines, promoting long-term well-being.

MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM AT OTHAKALMANDAPAM

A highly beneficial "Do No Harm" mental health training program was conducted for the parishioners at Othakalmandapam. The one-hour session, led by resource person Miss Bafina, saw enthusiastic participation from approximately 50 individuals. The program focused on practical strategies for solving everyday life problems and managing mental well-being. Miss Bafina effectively demonstrated techniques on how to face and resolve personal issues, using relatable life examples that resonated deeply with the audience. An interactive worksheet was provided for participants to work on during the session, facilitating immediate application of the concepts learned. The event concluded with an engaging Q&A segment, where Miss Bafina clarified doubts. The program was widely appreciated for its practical and empowering approach to daily mental health.

TN-CHON CITY FORUM MEETING

A significant TN-CHON (Tamil Nadu - Christian Health Organizations Network) city forum meeting was successfully held at CMSSS on September 20th. The event was jointly organized by the Christian Medical Association of India (CMAI) and the Catholic

Health Association of Tamil Nadu (CHAT), with active organization and participation from the Diocese Health Commission members. The meeting brought together a diverse gathering of Christian doctors, nurses, and medical professionals from various denominations. The primary agenda was a constructive discussion on identifying and mobilizing internal resources within the community to facilitate mutual sharing and support. It was unanimously decided that this collaborative city forum will convene every three months to strengthen networks, share best practices, and foster unity in serving through healthcare. The two-hour meeting was marked by enthusiastic participation and a shared commitment to collective growth.

DIOCESE HEALTH ASSOCIATION (DHA) MEETING

A meeting of the Diocese Health Association (DHA) was held on September 20th at CMSSS. The meeting was attended by the CHAT President, Sr. Shiny Vincent, and the Regional Program Manager, alongside members of the Diocesan Health Commission. The session commenced with the submission of the previous meeting's minutes and report to CHAT. Key announcements from CHAT were then presented and discussed by the members. A primary agenda item was the invitation for new members to join the commission, aiming to invigorate its mission. The one-hour meeting, which saw an attendance of approximately 20 members, was productive and focused on strengthening the collaborative efforts between the DHA and CHAT for effective healthcare service.

COIMBATORE SC/ST COMMISSION

EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP DISTRIBUTION

On behalf of the SC/ST Commission, education scholarships were successfully distributed to eleven deserving college-going students from various parishes to support their academic expenses. The financial assistance provided through cheques will be instrumental in helping them cover their college fees.

The recipients included five students from Puliyakulam Parish, three from Madathukulam Parish, and three from Mariapuram Parish. Each of these students was carefully identified based on their need and merit. We extend our sincere gratitude to the respective Parish Priests for their diligent efforts in identifying the most deserving candidates within their communities and for their unwavering support to the Commission's initiative. This collaborative effort ensures that valuable resources reach those who need them the most, fostering greater educational opportunities.

GENERAL BODY MEETING OF SC/ST COMMISSION

A pivotal general body meeting of the SC/ST Commission was held at CMSSS. The session, organized and led by the Zonal Coordinator, focused on strategic planning and member development.

Key agenda items included in-depth discussions on future initiatives, which were finalized for implementation in the coming months. A significant highlight was a practical training program conducted for the members, designed to provide valuable skills for their daily lives. Official reports from various activities were also presented and reviewed.

A positive development from the meeting was the formation of new groups of donors, marking a strengthening of support for the Commission's vital work. The meeting was highly productive, setting a clear and actionable path forward for the organization's future endeavours.
